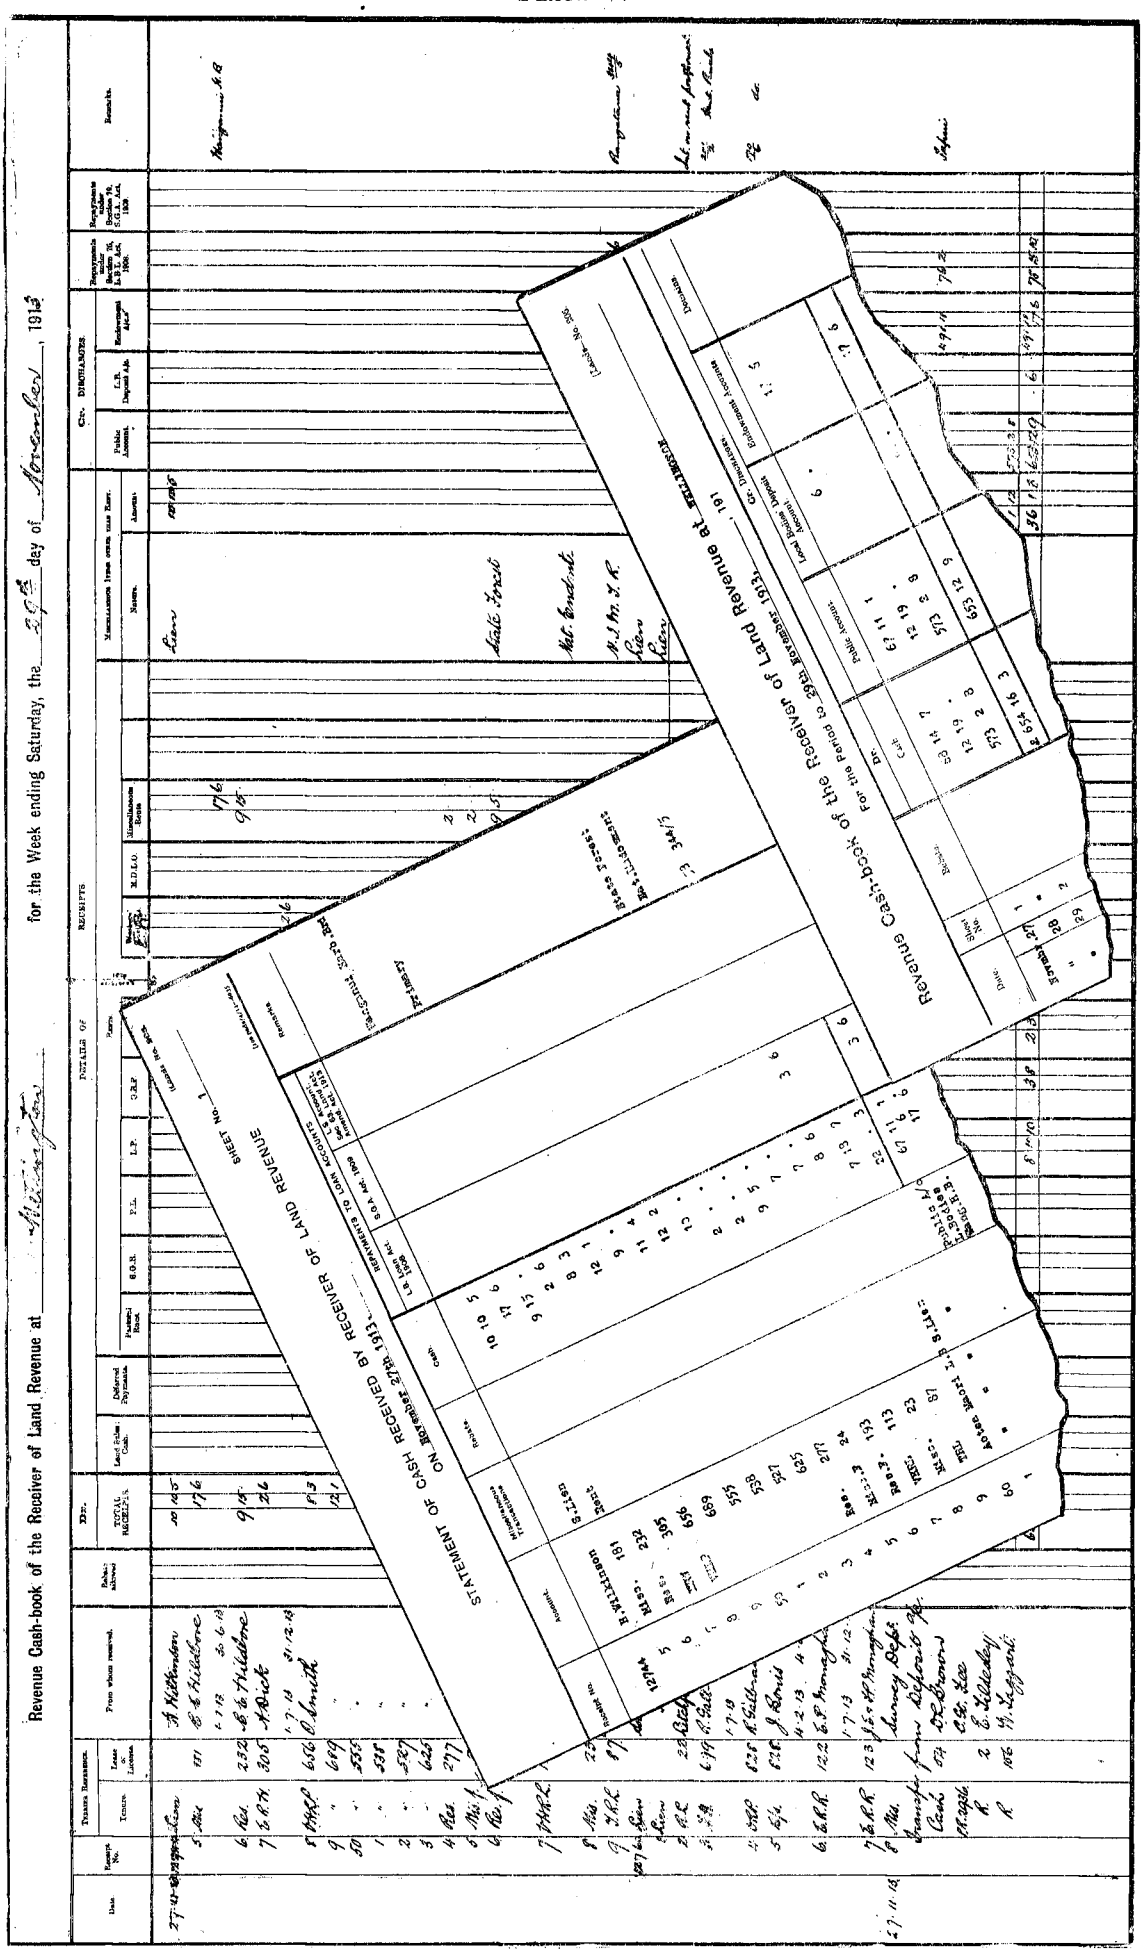
PLATE V.



Forms illustrating the old and new methods of preparing Land Revenue Cash-book. The adoption of the forms (insets) has resulted in considerable saving of time, as the preparation of duplicate copies for Treasury purposes is done at the same time as the original is prepared. Previously a more detailed cash-book was prepared in manuscript, and the copies required were also separately written.