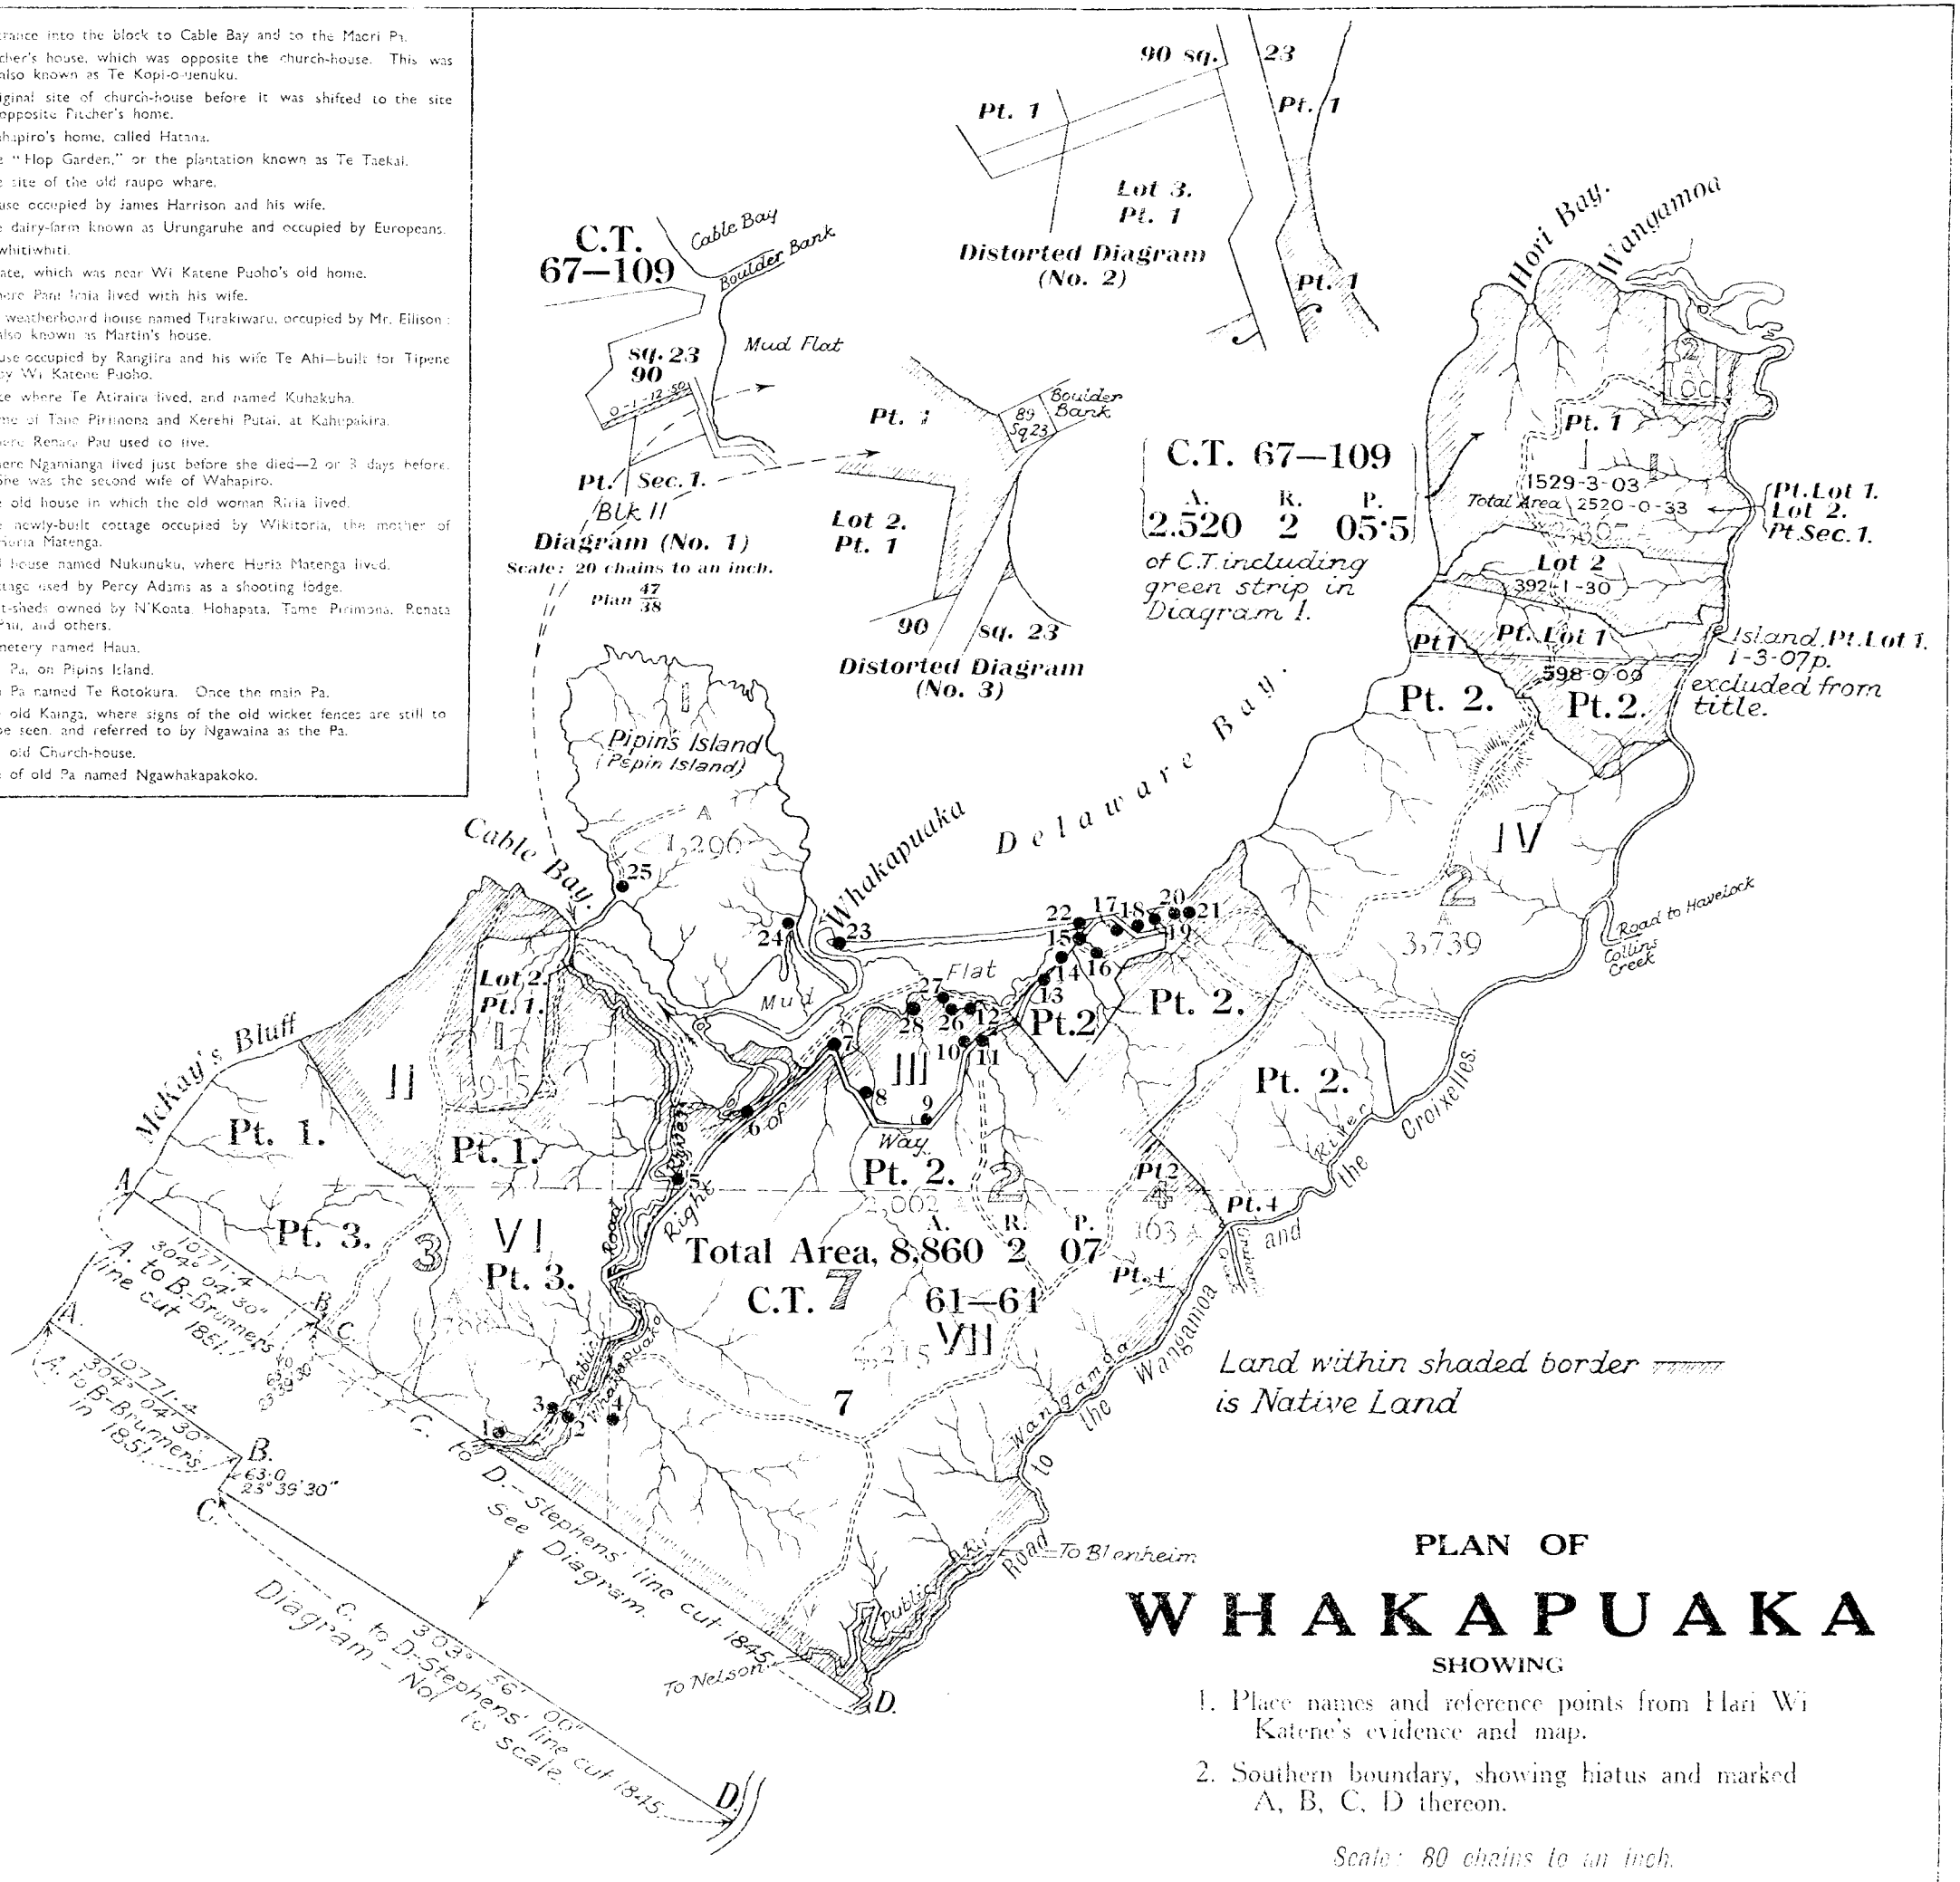
1. Entrance into the block to Cable Bay and to the Maori Pa.
2. Pitcher's house, which was opposite the church-house. This was also known as Te Kopi-o-tuenuku.
3. Original site of church-house before it was shifted to the site opposite Pitcher's home.
4. Wahapiro's home, called Hatana.
5. The "Hop Garden," or the plantation known as Te Taekai.
6. The site of the old raupo whare.
7. House occupied by James Harrison and his wife.
8. The dairy-farm known as Urungaruhe and occupied by Europeans.
9. Kowhitiwhiti.
10. Koiate, which was near Wi Katene Puoho's old home.
11. Where Pani Inia lived with his wife.
12. Big weatherboard house named Turakiwaru, occupied by Mr. Ellison: also known as Martin's house.
13. House occupied by Rangiira and his wife Te Ahi—built for Tipene by Wi Katene Puoho.
14. Place where Te Atiraira lived, and named Kuhakuha.
15. Home of Tame Pirimona and Kerehi Putai, at Kahupakira.
16. Where Renata Pau used to live.
17. Where Ngamianga lived just before she died—2 or 3 days before. She was the second wife of Wahapiro.
18. The old house in which the old woman Riria lived.
19. The newly-built cottage occupied by Wikitoria, the mother of Huria Matenga.
20. Old house named Nukunuku, where Huria Matenga lived.
21. Cottage used by Percy Adams as a shooting lodge.
22. Boat-sheds owned by N'Koata, Hohapata, Tame Pirimona, Renata Pau, and others.
23. Cemetery named Haua.
24. Old Pa, on Pipins Island.
25. Old Pa named Te Rotokura. Once the main Pa.
26. The old Kainga, where signs of the old wicket fences are still to be seen, and referred to by Ngawaina as the Pa.
27. The old Church-house.
28. Site of old Pa named Ngawhakapakoko.



PLAN OF WHAKAPUAKA

SHOWING

1. Place names and reference points from Hari Wi Katene's evidence and map.
2. Southern boundary, showing hiatus and marked A, B, C, D thereon.

Scale: 80 chains to an inch.