WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Native Districts Regulation Act, 1858," it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to appoint Districts for the purposes of the said Act, being Districts over which the Native Title shall not for the time being have been extinguished :

And by the same Act it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to make and put in force within any such District, Regulations (among other things) for the prevention of Cattle-trespass and of the wandering of Cattle at large, and for defining and prescribing the rights, duties, and liabilities in relation to damage done by Cattle-trespass and otherwise in relation thereto of all owners or occupiers of land, persons owning or having charge of cattle and other persons, and that any such Regulations shall be made, as far as possible, with the general assent of the Native population affected thereby, to be ascertained in such manner as the Governor may deem fitting : And whereas the Native Lands in the Hundreds of Taupari and Kohekohe have become infested with Cattle wandering at large to the great injury of agriculture and to the peril of all travellers through the said lands : and whereas it is expedient to make and put in force within the said Hundreds the following Regulations, and the general assent thereto of the Native population has been ascertained to the satisfaction of the Governor :

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, doth hereby make and put in force within the said Hundreds of Taupari and Kohekohe, the following regulations—that is to say,
