

FURTHER PAPERS, RELATIVE TO

C.—PROVINCE OF TARANAKI.

NOMINAL RETURN of the FORCE engaged in the attack on Kaitake, March 25, 1854, under the Command of Colonel H. J. WARRE, C.B.

| Rank and Names.                      | Corps.                            | Strength.   |            |                | Remarks.                                                  |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------|------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|
|                                      |                                   | Ser-geants. | Drum-mers. | Rank and file. |                                                           |
| Lieut. C. M. Clarke, D. A. Q. M. Gen | Staff -                           | ...         | ...        | ...            | Regular Troops.Sergts. Drum. Rank & File.13 4 214 |
| Lieut. E. Brutton, Garr. Adj.        | " -                               | ...         | ...        | ...            |                                                           |
| Surgeon J. E. Young                  | Medical Staff -                   | ...         | ...        | ...            |                                                           |
| Assistant-Surgeon M. Jones           | " -                               | ...         | ...        | ...            |                                                           |
| Captain W. G. Martin                 | Royal Artillery -                 | 2           | ...        | 35             |                                                           |
| Lieut. C. Ferguson                   | Royal Engineers -                 | 2           | ...        | 2              |                                                           |
| Major H. Butler                      | 57th Regiment -                   | 8           | 3          | 175            |                                                           |
| Captain T. W. J. Lloyd               |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain F. J. Schomberg              |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain H. R. Russell                |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Lieut. W. R. Thompson, Act. Adj.     |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Lieut. R. A. H. Cox                  | 70 Regiment -                     | 1           | 1          | 2              |                                                           |
| Lieut. A. C. Manners                 |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Ensign P. E. Powys, Act. Q. M.       |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Ensign T. F. Down                    |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain A. B. Wright                 | Mounted Corps -                   | 1           |            |                |                                                           |
| Ensign H. Whinbourne                 |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain F. T. Mace                   | Melbourne and Otago Volunteers. } | 13          | 1          | 218            |                                                           |
| Captain J. G. Corbett                |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain J. M'Kellar                  |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain A. Page                      |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain E. Carthew                   |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Lieut. W. Hussey                     | Taranaki Rifle Volunteers - }     | 11          | 2          | 151            |                                                           |
| Lieut. G. J. Gosling                 |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Lieut. J. Kelly                      |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Lieut. J. H. Clarke                  |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain H. A. Atkinson               |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain C. Stapp, Adj. T. Militia    |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Captain T. Good                      |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Lieut. M. Jones                      |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Lieut. J. Hurst                      | Total -                           | 36          | 7          | 627            |                                                           |
| Ensign A. Bailey                     |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Ensign T. M'Guinness                 |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Ensign J. Brown                      |                                   |             |            |                |                                                           |
| Assistant-Surgeon H. J. Webber       |                                   |             |            |                | Militia.Sergts. Drum. Rank & File.25 3 369        |

H. J. WARRE, Colonel Commanding Troops, Taranaki.

NOMINAL RETURN of the Killed and Wounded of the Troops at Au Au on the 24th, and at Kaitake on the 25th March, 1864.

| Corps. | Regimental No. | Rank and Names.         | Years of |          | Date of Wound.       | Place of Wound. | Nature of Injury.                | Results. | Remarks.           |
|--------|----------------|-------------------------|----------|----------|----------------------|-----------------|----------------------------------|----------|--------------------|
|        |                |                         | Age.     | Service. |                      |                 |                                  |          |                    |
| 57th   | 3188           | Private Thomas Bishop - | 35       | 17       | 1864.24th March. | Au Au           | Gunshot wound of right fore arm. | Severe.  | } Ball ex-tracted. |
| "      | 3549           | " Michael Hynes -       | 27       | 9        | "                    | "               | Gunshot wound of left elbow.     | "        |                    |
| "      | 2086           | " William Neary -       | 33       | 17       | 25th March.          | Kaitake.        | Gunshot wound of left thigh      | "        |                    |
| T.R.V. | —              | Sergeant James Appleby  | 27       | Mos8 | "                    | "               | Gunshot wound of right thigh.    | "        |                    |

The Deputy A. Quartermaster-General
&c. &c. &c.
New Plymouth

J. E. YOUNG, M.D., Staff Surgeon.
H. J. WARRE,
Col. Commanding Troops, Taranaki.