

ment of a carriage containing the full number of persons which it is constructed to convey, except with the consent of the persons in such carriage or compartment, and refusing to go out when requested by the Guard or other officer of the railway to do so, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

18. Any person, not being a railway servant, who shall open any carriage for the purpose of entering the same after the tickets have been examined and the carriage doors locked by the person appointed for that purpose, or who shall let himself out of any carriage or truck, or attempting to do so, at any station or at any time during the journey, by the use of a private key or other instrument, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

19. No person shall, without the consent of the General Manager or other authorized officer, travel outside a carriage on any railway under any circumstances, or get into or upon or quit any railway carriage when the train is in motion; and any person doing so, or attempting to do so, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

20. Loaded firearms are on no account to be taken into or placed upon any carriage, wagon, truck, or other vehicle forming or intended to form a train, or any portion of a train, on the railway; and every person so offending shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

21. Smoking is strictly prohibited in any of the railway sheds, offices, or waiting-rooms; and any person found so smoking shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

22. Smoking is strictly prohibited in any railway carriage except those set apart for the purpose; and any person found smoking in a carriage not set apart for the purpose shall forfeit a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and may be removed from the carriage by any railway servant.

23. Dogs will be conveyed and charged for according to printed conditions, but will not on any account be allowed to accompany passengers in the carriages. Any person persisting in taking a dog into a passenger carriage shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

24. No gratuity shall be, under any circumstances, allowed to be received by a railway servant, on pain of dismissal. Any person giving or offering a gratuity to any such servant shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

25. Any person writing any indecent words on any part of a railway, or the premises thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

26. Any person making use of insulting or abusive language to any railway officer or servant while in the execution of his duty, or obstructing any such officer while in the execution of his duty, or making use of indecent or blasphemous language in any carriage or upon any railway platform or premises, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

27. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate or slip panel set up at either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands, as soon as he and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

28. Any person throwing stones, gravel, timber, or any rubbish on a railway, or at any engine, carriage, or wagon thereon; or causing or allowing any animal to wander on a railway which is fenced on both sides; or doing any act which may obstruct the working of a railway, or may endanger the lives of persons travelling thereon; or driving or attempting to drive any vehicle or animal across a level crossing or elsewhere on a railway when an engine or any carriages or wagons on the railway are approaching and within a mile from such crossing; or moving any part of the rolling-stock on any railway, or leaving the same on any part of a railway, not having lawful authority so to do; or attempting to do, or counselling or aiding any other person in doing, any of the things mentioned in this section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, in addition to any penalty which he may otherwise be liable for doing any of the said things.

29. If any person deface the writing on any boards, or any notices authorized to be maintained on a railway or any station thereof, or any rolling-stock thereon, he shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding ten pounds, and an additional sum equal to the cost incurred in repairing any such damage.

30. Any person trespassing upon any part of a railway, not being a station platform or crossing, or other part to which the public are allowed access by law, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

31. The General Manager shall publish the short particulars of the several offences for which any penalty is imposed by these or any other by-laws of the railway, and of the amount of every such penalty, and shall cause such particulars to be painted on a board, or printed upon paper and pasted thereon, and shall cause such board to be hung up or affixed on some conspicuous part of the principal station of the railway; and, where any such penalties are of local application, shall cause such boards to be affixed in some conspicuous place in the immediate neighbourhood to which such penalties are applicable or have reference; and such particulars shall be renewed as often as the same or any part thereof is obliterated or destroyed.

32. Any person in or upon any railway carriage or station, being in a state of intoxication, or committing any nuisance, or gambling, or wilfully interfering with the comfort of any passenger, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and to removal from such carriage or station as soon as shall be practicable.

33. No driver or conductor of any cab, hackney carriage, omnibus, express, or other public vehicle, shall ply for hire within the railway premises without a license in writing from the General Manager or other authorized officer; and any person offending contrary to this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

34. No person will be allowed to come upon any railway platform for the purpose of removing any passenger or luggage, unless required by a passenger and engaged by him for such purpose, and no person will be allowed to come upon any railway premises for the purpose of soliciting custom or hire. Any person attempting to evade or being guilty of a breach of this section, or not quitting the premises when required by a Station Clerk or other railway servant, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

35. Any person, unless authorized by the General Manager, who shall post or stick any placard or bill within or on any of the property or premises, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

36. Any person who shall wilfully injure, wholly or in part, any of the linings or blinds, or break or deface any of the windows, or remove or injure any number-plate or advertisement, or remove or extinguish any of the lamps, or otherwise damage any engine, carriage, truck, wagon, or other property belonging to a railway, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, in addition to a sum equal to the cost incurred in repairing any such damage.

37. Any person selling or attempting to sell any
