

Regulation amending Regulation specifying the Terms to be kept and Examinations to be passed for obtaining the Degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Laws.

I. Section II. of the regulation specifying the terms to be kept and examinations to be passed for obtaining the degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Laws is hereby repealed.

II. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws shall pass four University examinations—two at the end of their first year, namely, one in Arts, in the compulsory subjects of examination for the degree of B.A.; and one in Law, of which the subjects shall be:—1. Jurisprudence; 2. English language and literature; 3. History of the British Empire; 4. Political economy. The subjects of the third examination shall be:—1. Roman law; 2. Constitutional law; 3. The law of property; 4. The law of obligations. The subjects of the fourth examination shall be:—1. International law; 2. The law of wrongs (civil and criminal); 3. The law of procedure.

III. Students who have passed in the compulsory subjects of examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the end of their second year may proceed to the degree of Bachelor of Laws by completing two additional years, and passing the second, third, and fourth examinations prescribed by Section II. of the regulation—viz., the second and third at the end of the first of such additional years, and the fourth at the end of the second of such additional years: Provided that any candidates who shall have attained the degree of B.A., either after examination or “ad eundem,” shall be at liberty to pass the third and fourth examinations prescribed in Section II. either together or in two separate years.

Regulation repealing Regulation permitting certain Teachers to proceed to the B.A. Degree.

I. The regulation permitting certain teachers to proceed to the B.A. degree is hereby repealed.

II. Teachers in affiliated institutions and certificated teachers of good repute in any school established or conducted under the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly or of a Provincial Council of this colony, having been in the practice of their profession for at least five years, may be admitted, on the recommendation of the Chancellor or of the Vice-Chancellor, to the examination for the B.A. degree, to be passed either in one or two sections, on payment of the ordinary fees, without matriculation and the keeping of the University terms; and on passing that examination shall be entitled to all the other privileges of the undergraduates of the University of the same standing anything in other regulations of the University notwithstanding: Provided that under this regulation no teacher shall be admitted to the first section of his examination beyond the B.A. examination before the year 1883.

Regulation amending Regulation specifying the Proceedings necessary for obtaining the Degrees of Bachelor and Doctor of Music.

I. Section VI. of the regulation specifying the proceedings necessary for obtaining degrees in Music is hereby repealed.

II. A Bachelor of Music wishing to proceed to the degree of Doctor is required to pass an examination in writing, and to compose a piece of vocal music in eight parts, with an accompaniment for a full orchestra, which, when approved, is to be performed in public, and a copy of it is to be deposited in the Music School.
