

RETURN of Officers and Warders employed respectively in the Gaols of the Colony, &c.—continued.

LYTTTELTON GAOL.

No.	Rank.	Term of Service to 1st August, 1878.	Salary.		Hours on Duty.	Average Number of Prisoners received annually during last Three Years.
			Per Day.	Per Annum.
			s. d.	£ s. d.
1	Gaoler ...	2 years 7 months*	...	300 0 0	Continuous ...	340
2	Matron ...	2 " 7 "	...	25 0 0
3	Chief Warder ...	15 " 11 "	8 0	†146 0 0
4	Principal Warder	10 " 3 "	7 6	†136 17 6	Eleven hours per day active duty, after deducting time for meals. All officers at all times are held available for duty if required, seven of whom sleep in prison quarters each night as a reserve.
5	" "	10 " 2 "	7 6	†136 17 6
6	Warder ...	12 " 5 "	7 0	†127 15 0
7	" ...	4 " 11 "	7 0	†127 15 0
8	" ...	3 " 3 "	7 0	†127 15 0
9	" ...	2 " 7 "	7 0	†127 15 0
10	" ...	2 " 3 "	7 0	†127 15 0
11	Assistant Warder	1 " 9 "	6 6	†118 12 6
12	" "	1 " 8 "	6 6	†118 12 6
13	" "	0 " 10 "	6 6	†118 12 6
14	" "	0 " 7 "	6 6	†118 12 6
15	" "	0 " 7 "	6 6	†118 12 6
16	" "	0 " 2 "	6 6	†118 12 6
17	Printer Instructing, Assistant Warder	0 " 4 "	6 6	§118 12 6
18	Foreman of Works	15 " 10 "	11 0	200 15 0	Eight hours. No Sunday work. As required.
19	Clerk ...	0 " 8 "	...	150 0 0
20	Surgeon ...	27 " 6 "	...	100 0 0

* Appointed from English Penal Department on application from Canterbury Provincial Government. Had thirteen years' service when transferred.

† Has quarters, fuel, and light.

‡ Receive £25 per annum in lieu of quarters, fire, and light.

§ Reside in prison quarters.

|| Receives 1s. per day for each working day as Instructing Officer.

 At this prison no short-sentence prisoners are received except from the Resident Magistrate's Court, Lyttelton. The short-sentence prisoners of North Canterbury are sent to Addington Gaol. Seventy-six of the prisoners, out of the 100 now confined herein, are under Supreme Court convictions, generally of long sentences, fifty of them being for penal servitude, viz., three years and upwards, consequently the average number received is few compared with other prisons which receive daily prisoners from Resident Magistrates' Courts for short sentences of forty-eight hours, &c.

From No. 3 to No. 17 inclusive receive uniform free, as follows:—1 dress suit biennially; 1 undress suit annually.

ADDINGTON GAOL.

No.	Rank.	Term of Service.	Salary.	Hours on Duty.	Prisoners Received, from year ending 31st December, 1874, to 30th June, 1878.
1	Surgeon ...	139 days ...	£100 per ann.	From three to four visits weekly	To 31 Dec., 1874— Committed ... 399 Detained in Reformatory ... 2 Total ... 401
2	Gaoler*	11 years ...	£150 "	Always on duty.	To 31 Dec., 1875— Committed ... 583 Detained in Reformatory ... 22 Total ... 605
3	Matron*	3 years 150 days...	£35 "	" "	To 31 Dec., 1876— Committed ... 626 Detained in Reformatory ... 34 Total ... 660
4	Warder†	8 " 293 " ...	7s. per day, with £25 per annum rent allowance	Ten hours per day during one six months of the year, and twelve hours per day during the remaining six months.	To 31 Dec., 1877— Committed ... 725 Detained in Reformatory ... 20 Total ... 745
5	Warder	3 " 35 " ...	7s. per day, with use of cottage on the premises	Eleven hours per day during one six months of the year and thirteen hours per day during the remaining six months, except when on night duty, which is taken fortnight about, when they perform ten hours per day.	Six months ending 30 June, 1878— Committed ... 351 Detained in Reformatory ... 5 Total ... 356
6	Warder‡	2 " less 8 " ...	7s. per day ...	Ten hours per day during one six months of the year and twelve hours per day the other.
7	Assistant Warder§	78 days ...	6s. 6d. " ...
8	Deputy Matron§...	33 " ...	4s. " ...

* Transferred from Lyttelton Gaol, and took temporary charge of Addington Gaol on the 21st March, 1875, with wife as Matron, and were both respectively appointed to their present situation by warrant on 22nd April following.

† Was transferred from Hokitika Gaol on the 1st September, 1876.

‡ Married; receives no allowance.

§ Single; provided with quarters in the gaol.