261-3	John Jones	Waikouaiti	Commissioner FitzGerald recommended grant for 10,000 acres. Grant for 8,560 acres prepared but not executed by Governor Fitzroy. Subsequently grant issued by Governor Grey for 2,560 acres, without prejudice to any right claimant might have if larger grants were afterwards made to land claimants. Mr. Jones, having memorialized the Executive Government, received a promise on the 30th September, 1861, that his case would be included in one of the classes of claims to be submitted for consideration of Assembly.	In 1867 "The John Jones Land Claims Settlement Act" was passed, which empowered the Governor to issue a land order to John Jones, authorizing him to purchase or select land in the Province of Otago, to the amount of £8,500, within twelve months of passing of Act. In 1868 an Amendment Act was passed, extending the time of selection another twelve months	...	8,500 0 0
