

May 22	Advance, 5 years	Schooner	59	5	...	Timber ...	Stranded; partial loss	...	Between North and South Spits, Wainakari River	S.S.W	...	Wind suddenly fell, and current drove vessel ashore	George Loverock.
"	Fanny Thornton, 3 years	Ketch ...	80	5	...	"	Stranded; total loss	...	Just outside of South Head, Hokianga Harbour	W.N.W.	Light breeze	Vessel refused to stay owing to sudden falling of the wind, and, there being no room to wear, she drifted ashore	Charles McBurney.
Unkn'wn	Poneke, 2 years	Schooner	80	6	...	Ballast ...	Unknown	Supposed 6; all hands	Unknown ...	Unknown	...	Vessel left Onehunga for Picton on the 11th June; was after being seen off Greymouth, and has not since been heard of	James Lee.
July 5	Wild Duck, 12 years	Ketch ...	43	4	...	Timber and cement	Stranded; partial loss	Supposed 3; all hands	"	Unknown	...	Vessel left Great Barrier Island for Auckland on the 2nd July, and has not since been heard of	Thomas Blair.
Unkn'wn	Jane Hannah, 10 years	Schooner	52	4	...	Timber ...	Stranded; total loss	Supposed 4; all hands	Guard's Bay	S.E.	Hurricane	Master beached vessel to prevent her becoming a total wreck, as gale was driving her ashore	Samuel Phipps.
"	Kennedy, s.s., 15 years	"	138	17	10	General...	Stranded; partial loss	...	Inside Heads of Akaroa Harbour	...	...	Vessel supposed to have been driven ashore by a storm on the 3rd or 4th July	D. Currie.
"	Wanganui, 6 years	"	70	6	...	"	Stranded; slight damage	...	Entrance to the Grey River	Calm	...	Casualty caused by the action of the signalman in recalling the vessel, and directing her to go northward to entrance to channel, and then giving the signal, "Watch for a smooth," further leading the master to believe that he was to cross the bar. Signalman censured	James Dillon.
"	Lizzie Guy, 9 years	Brigantine	85	5	1	Timber ...	Loss of life	1	At the entrance to the Hokiitika River	"	...	A following sea so slackened the tow-rope that the vessel went ashore before the steamer could tighten the rope	John Blaney.
"	Annie Hill, 4 years	Schooner	121	7	...	Coal ...	"	1	80 miles east of Hokiitika	N.E.	Strong gale	A heavy sea swept over the vessel, and washed C. Laird, the mate, overboard	James Stevens.
"	Malay, 18 years	Barque ...	328	10	...	"	Stranded; partial loss	...	100 miles north-west of South West Cape, Middle Island, N.Z.	"	Storm ...	A heavy sea broke on board, and washed the master overboard	George McKay.
"	Beautiful Star, s.s., 18 years	Schooner	146	...	...	"	Loss of life	1	On rock at outer end of Barrett's Reef, Wellington Harbour	N.W.	Fresh breeze	Although the accident occurred directly through a sudden change of wind, still blame must attach to Captain Holm for placing his vessel in such a critical position as to render her at the mercy of any flaw in a light breeze	Ferdinand Holm.
"	Ino, s.s., 6 years	Ketch ...	31	6	...	Grain ...	Stranded; partial loss	...	Two miles from Oamaru	...	...	Error of judgment of the master in taking the bar with a heavy sea on	Frederick Jones.
"	Julius Vogel, 7 years	Schooner	56	5	...	Coal ...	Stranded; partial loss	...	Mouth of the Clutha River	...	Light air	The master was justified in entering the river in face of the signal, "Bar dangerous," on account of the unseaworthy condition of his vessel's appointments	George Campbell.
Aug. 7	Julia Pryce, 8 years	"	41	3	...	Timber ...	Stranded; partial loss	...	North spit of the Waitara River	E.N.E.	Strong breeze	Force of wind made chains part, and drove vessel ashore	John Jeffery Cullen.
"	Sarah and Mary, 8½ years	Ketch ...	40	4	...	New Zealand produce	Stranded; total loss	...	Tutakaka, north east coast of North Island	N.E.	Gale ...	Cable parted while vessel was at anchor. It was of more than usual strength, and should not have parted had it been properly secured, as the night was fine and calm, occasionally being squally. The master, who had undertaken to keep the anchor watch, went to sleep in his cabin. Evidence of master and mate untrustworthy and unreliable. Master ordered to pay costs of inquiry, £35 19s.	Henry Wulff.
"									On west side of Motuara Island, Queen Charlotte Sound	"	Fresh breeze		William Penny Forman.