Supports to be considered as component parts of a regiment.

15. The proportion of officers to all corps will be regulated, as far as practicable, by the custom in Her Majesty's service.

16. In the event of a troop, battery, or company falling below the authorized minimum strength, and a sufficient number of eligible men not offering their services, at the next half-yearly period of enrolment, to complete the establishment, such troop, battery, or company may be disbanded.

17. Engineer Volunteer corps if raised should, as a general rule, be formed of persons who are connected with the profession of engineers, or employed as telegraphists, masons, joiners, quarrymen, navigators, or the like.

ESTABLISHMENTS.

18. The following Tables contain the authorized establishments of the different arms of which the Volunteer Force is composed. In these Tables two numbers divided by a line signify the maximum and minimum strength; thus $\frac{60}{40}$ means not more than 60 nor less than 40.
