LIQUOR LAW.

1. A Licensing Officer shall be appointed by the Council, and in case of vacancy when the Council is not in session a temporary appointment shall be made by the Arikis. The Licensing Officer can only be removed from office by a vote of the General Council, approved by the Council of the Arikis.
2. The duty of the Licensing Officer shall be to take charge of all intoxicating liquors within the protectorate on the coming into operation of this law, and of any intoxicating liquors that may hereafter be imported.
3. The Licensing Officer shall provide a suitable store and office at Avatiu or Avarua for the storage of intoxicating liquor in his charge.
4. The Licensing Officer shall issue such liquor only in accordance with the provisions of this law.
5. All owners of liquor will, on or before the 10th January, 1891, make a return to the Licensing Officer of the quantities in their possession, and he will thereupon take charge thereof.
6. Where the said liquors are held in reasonable quantities at the houses of the owners for their own use, the Licensing Officer will at his discretion allow them to remain there. In all other cases he will require that they be placed in the bond or store appointed for the purpose.
7. The Licensing Officer will keep the said liquors carefully in store at the risk of the owners thereof.
8. The said owners shall have access to the store to inspect their property on any week-day between the hours of 10 and 3, Saturdays excepted, when the hours shall be from 10 till 12.
9. No intoxicating liquor shall hereafter be sold and delivered by any one except to persons to whom a permit to purchase or receive the same shall have been granted by the Licensing Officer; and the Licensing Officer, on delivery of any liquor so authorised, shall retain the permit and file it as a record. In the case of natives, the permit shall only be issued on the written authority of the ruling Ariki of the district; but the foreigner shall go only to the Licensing Officer.
10. If the Licensing Officer should have reason to believe that permits are being improperly obtained to defeat the purposes of this law, he may decline to issue the same till satisfied to the contrary.
