During the past year two vacancies have occurred on the Council owing to the death of the Hon. James Fulton, M.L.C., and the resignation of Mr. John Roberts, C.M.G. The first vacancy was filled by the Government nominating Sir Robert Stout, K.C.M.G. The second vacancy occurred shortly after the passing into law of the new Act of Parliament altering the constitution of the Council, and according to the provisions of the Act the graduates of the University met and elected Mr. David White, M.A., as their representative on the Council. The new Act provides for the nomination by the Crown of six of the twelve members, the graduates elect four, and the Professorial Board two; there are some further provisions, which will be found in the text of the Act.

The tenure of office of the Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor having expired, the Council re-appointed, for the fifth time, the Rev. Donald McNaughton Stuart, D.D., as Chancellor, and, also for the fifth time, His Honour Mr. Justice Williams, as Vice-Chancellor.
