3. STATEMENT RESPECTING SCHOLARSHIPS.

Scholarships founded in connection with the School.

Gould Scholarships.—These scholarships are two in number, and are given to deserving boys who require assistance. These scholarships cover the school fees and cost of books.

Somes Senior and Junior Scholarships.—About £450 annually is available for these scholarships. Four senior and eight junior scholarships are open for competition from time to time. In addition to the amount given for the scholarships, an amount is given to assist the boarding expenses of boarders.

Somes Entrance Scholarships.—The subjects for examination for these scholarships are English, geography, English history, and arithmetic. Five scholarships are offered for competition each year. There were seventeen scholars on this foundation during the past year, all of whom are from Government primary schools.

Buller and Reay Scholarships.—£300 a year is set apart for exhibitions for sons of the clergy, and £60 for other exhibitions.

Tancred History Prize Fund.—Prizes are given annually from this endowment for proficiency in history and English literature. The amount so expended last year was £43.

The remainder of the funds available from various scholarship endowments is devoted to the collegiate department of Christ's College, students in which are required to study for their degree at Canterbury College.
