No. 678, 1891, Sess. II.—Petition of TOMOPO TE RANGI and 12 Others.

PETITIONERS allege that, through the interference of a half-caste woman, they are unable to obtain possession of Sections 39 and 40, Koheroa, being a portion of land returned by Government to the late Hone Whatarangi. They pray that a survey be made, and the land finally conveyed to them.

I have the honour to report that, as this matter has already been settled by Government, the Committee has no recommendation to make.
