PROSPECTING SHAFT.

Head of Frosty Creek.

Surface of Ground. Fine drift with pug and small stones. 50 Blue rounded washed boulders, but no gold. 55[']3" Fine drift with pug and small stones. 100 Very hard cemented ground with blue clay in places, large triangular stones, and small rounded stones. |31[°] |32[°]6 Gravel wash with colours of gold. Large angular indurated sandstone boulders which required blasting. Large granite boulders. 167 Washdrift carrying 5 to 6 strong colours of gold to a dish. 171 Puggy ground and small rounded stones. Washdrift, small prospect of gold, not payable.

Shaft not sunk to bottom. No water. Size 2'7"x 5'down to 100ft below 100ft. 2'5"x 4'10". Layers to 80ft dipped to S.W. about 3" in 5ft below 80ft about level. Shaft about 11/2 miles from end of lead.