P. SHERIDAN,
Officer-in-Charge.

REPORT on the CONDITION and SETTLEMENT of all LANDS acquired under "The Native Land Purchases Act, 1892."

THE lands acquired under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, situated within the Coromandel and Thames Peninsula, as shown in Part I., are already more or less settled upon under gold-fields regulations, and active mining operations are being carried on upon most of them.

Nearly all the other lands, including those shown to have been acquired under the provisions of "The North Island Main Trunk Railway Loan Application Act, 1886," and amendments, are likely to be absorbed, with several other blocks since acquired, in settlement within the ensuing twelve months.
