No. 195.—Petition of AHUREI HIKAIRO and 5 Others.

PETITIONERS pray that a rehearing may be granted in connection with Pirongia West No. 1. They allege that, through a breach of trust on the part of those appointed to hand in the lists to the Native Land Court, persons received shares in the block who were not entitled to them.

I have the honour to report that the Committee are of opinion that the Chief Judge of the Native Land Court should hold an inquiry regarding the injustice which appears to have been done to the petitioners.
