

YEAR ENDING 31 MARCH, 1943.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT—continued.

REMARKS.

- (a) Payable in respect of Public Service Superannuation Fund (recoverable).
- (b) Increase due to increased business. Recoveries increased proportionately.
- (c) Provision made for war-damage insurance on properties, mortgages on which are held in respect of Hawke's Bay earthquake loans, &c.
- (d) Public servants retiring through ill-health are required to be examined by two medical practitioners. Previously charged to Public Service Superannuation Fund.
- (e) Provision for furniture for offices in new departmental building in Stout Street, £3,500 ; additional equipment for Powers-Samas accounting-machines, £5,140 (£850 recoverable).
- (f) Equipment ordered in 1941-42 not yet to hand.
- (g) Commission on transactions through the Post Office.
- (h) Underestimated.
- (i) Commission charged for management of mortgages, collection of interest, &c., Public Service Superannuation Fund.
- (j) Increased activities. Corresponding increase in credits-in-aid.