- (a) Deposit paid in 1940 by agents of overseas ship in respect of a Chinese seaman who had deserted the vessel. As efforts to locate him were unsuccessful, it was subsequently treated as a fine under the Immigration Restriction Acts and paid into the Public Account. The Chinese has now been found, and as arrangements have been made for him to leave the Dominion as soon as convenient, the agents are considered to be entitled to a refund of the £200.
- (b) Required to cover cases where duty and sales tax have actually been paid, and a refund subsequently approved. Where these charges are remitted at the time of importation, the amounts are written off in the Schedule to the annual Appropriation Act.

(a) Expansion of seed-production, and more particularly of small seeds, involves increasing expenditure, but there is an offsetting effect on the credit side.

(b) This type of laboratory work has to be developed to keep pace with current manurial and other primary-production problems.

(c) As seed-testing activities increase, expenses (and revenue) are also advancing.

(d) Rapidity of action in meeting the effects of current primary-production problems, including distribution, is essential, and has greatly increased telephone usage in the Fields Division.

(e) Approximately 80 officers travelling. Allowances, £3,750; expenses, £1,750; motor hire, £1,600; motor mileage, £2,434.

(a) There is, and has been, a lag in obtaining chemical-supplies; also extensive investigational work on fish-oil is proceeding. The result is considerable fluctuation in laboratory expenditure.

(b) An experimental area is being developed and increased expenditure is at present mainly in Poverty Bay.

(c) Certain Services' vegetable-production activities led to reduction of other activities, but those are now being renewed; also much maintenance work and additional experimental work has to be undertaken.

(d) Research activities are being extended. There is also a lag in chemical-supplies to be overtaken.

(e) Approximately 28 officers travelling. Allowances, £720; expenses, £750; motor hire, £100; motor mileage, £551.

(a) Fourteen students now at Sydney University.
(b) A separate item has been taken, as the Committee has functions for attention in future years and this new item will enable the expenses to be readily traced. In 1943-44, its first year, the expenses have been charged as incidental to primary production.
(c) As certain supplies of sodium chlorate are becoming available, more work will be attempted.
(d) Grants on account of floods in the vicinity of Whakatane and Gisborne.
(e) Lime tonnage carried is liable to fluctuate in accordance with man-power and freight-carrying situations.
(f) This activity was reduced through man-power and transport difficulties, but should now be expanded again.

(a) Underexpenditure is accounted for by the late delivery of overseas supplies.
(b) There is still an unsettled claim which was provided for under this item.
(c) The overexpenditure of £4,406 is reflected in additional farm credits.
(d) The failure of the Huka Falls plant necessitated the installation of a Diesel plant for Wairakei. This resulted in additional expenditure.
(e) Several vehicles were purchased towards the end of the year, but payment for these has not yet been made.
(f) A change in the method of purchasing attendants' uniforms, as well as the purchase of nurses' stockings, has increased the expenditure on this item. The overexpenditure, however, is more apparent than real, as credit has been received by resale. Delivery of overseas supplies earlier than expected also accounts for certain overexpenditure.
(g) The non-delivery of annual overseas supplies has been responsible for this underexpenditure.
