

YEAR ENDING 31 MARCH, 1948

REMARKS

- (a) The Intergovernmental Committee on Refugees budgeted for six months only in anticipation of its activities being taken over on 1st July, 1947, by the International Refugee Organization.
- (b) It is intended that the International Refugee Organization will take over the functions of UNRRA, which ceased operations on 30th June, 1947, and also the Intergovernmental Committee on Refugees (see (a) above) in relation to refugees and displaced persons. Contributions are based on a budget covering twelve months operations from 1st July, 1947.
- (c) The International Labour Organization was previously financed by the League of Nations.
- (d) Expenditure greater than anticipated. Details of expenditure are as under :—
