

THE MAIN EMPLOYERS OF SCIENTISTS

Of the 766 new scientists required by 1952, 286 are actually needed to fill present vacancies. The figure below shows the proportions as between the main employing bodies :—

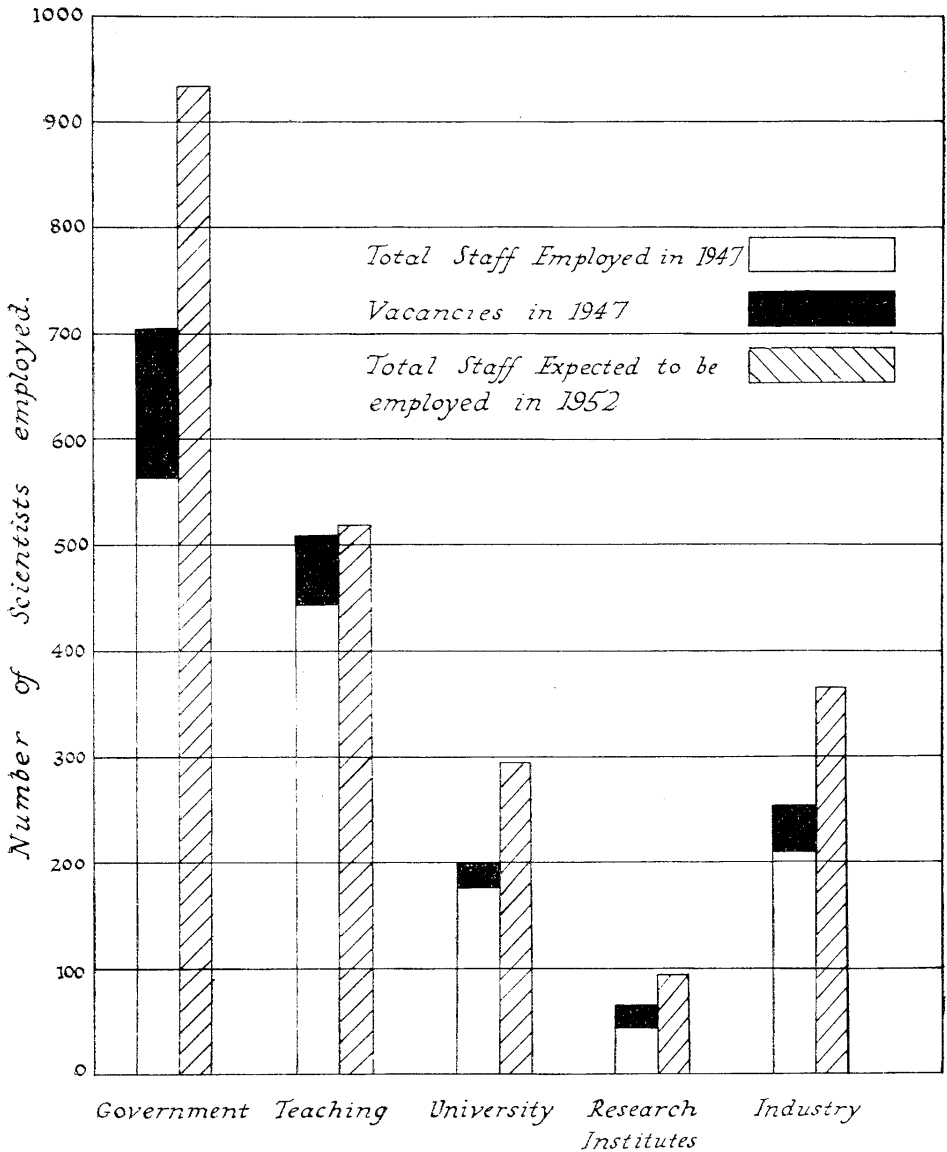

FIG. 1.—SCIENTISTS IN FIVE MAIN EMPLOYING GROUPS