

Nicaragua

1. Treaty for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals.‡

Signed at Managua 19 April 1905; ratifications exchanged 13 February 1906; terminable after notice not exceeding one year and not less than six months.

Extended to Western Samoa as from 12 January 1928 by exchange of notes at Managua 19 December 1927 and 12 January 1928.

U.K.T.S. No. 7 (1906); S.P. XCVIII, 65; Hertslet XXIV, 789; L.N.T.S. LXXXVIII, 410.

2. Treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation.‡

Signed at Managua 28 July 1905; ratifications exchanged 24 August 1906; effective 2 September 1906; terminable after one year's notice.

Under articles 3 and 4 most-favoured-nation treatment on the basis of reciprocity is operative.

U.K.T.S. No. 12 (1906); S.P. XCVIII, 72; S.P. C, 552; Handbook 471.

Norway

1. Treaty for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals.‡

Signed at Stockholm 26 June 1873; ratifications exchanged 28 August 1873; terminable after six months' notice.

Extended to Western Samoa, together with supplementary agreement of 18 February 1907, by exchange of notes at Oslo 8 December 1927 and 13 December 1929.

Article 2 supplemented by agreement of 18 February 1907.

S.P. LXIII, 175; Hertslet XIV, 527; L.N.T.S. XCII, 427.

2. *Supplementary agreement respecting the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals.‡

Signed at Oslo 18 February 1907; same duration as the extradition treaty of 26 June 1873.

Extended to Western Samoa by exchange of notes at Oslo 8 December 1927 and 13 December 1929.

Agreement maintains the treaty of 1873, so far as Norway is concerned, and supplements article 2 of the treaty.

U.K.T.S. No. 19 (1907); S.P. C, 552; Hertslet XXV, 964; L.N.T.S. XCII, 427.