IN RESPECT OF THE SECTIONS KNOWN AS NOS. 101 AND 102, WAIKOUAITI NATIVE RESERVE.
IN THE NATIVE LAND COURT OF NEW ZEALAND, WELLINGTON DISTRICT.

At a sitting of the Native Land Court, held at Waikouaiti on the 5th day of March, 1901, before Alexander Mackay, Esquire, a Judge of the said Court, and Te Whatahoro, Assessor. In the matter of the parcels of land known as Sections Nos. 101 and 102, situate and forming part of the Waikouaiti Native Reserve, in the Provincial Land District of Otago, and in the matter of the Order in Council dated the 15th day of August, 1898, declaring that it shall be within the jurisdiction of the Native Land Court to determine certain matters referred to it thereunder, and on application to have the aforesaid matters dealt with in manner provided.

Upon inquiry made as to the existence of any intended trust affecting the title to the aforesaid sections, and it appearing that such a trust exists, and that there has been no alienation, it is declared that the persons who are named in the schedule attached hereto, and therein numbered respectively from 1 to 238, both inclusive, are the persons beneficially entitled under the said trust to a portion of the said sections, containing in the aggregate 29 acres 1 rood and 6 perches, it is hereby ordered that the existing instruments of title for the aforesaid sections be amended in manner following—that is to say, that the persons enumerated in the schedule attached found to be beneficially entitled be included therein for an interest in the aforesaid area not exceeding 19 acres 1 rood and 6 perches.

As witness the hand of Alexander Mackay, Esquire, Judge, and the seal of the Court.

A. MACKAY, Judge.
