

|                                                  |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
|--------------------------------------------------|----|-----------------------------------------------|----|----|---------------------------------------------|------------------------|-------------------|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CUNONIACEÆ.                                      |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Ackama roseifolia A. Cunn.                | .. | Makamaka                                      | .. | .. | ..                                          | ..                     | N.                | ..            | Small tree, with large, thin, pinnate leaves.                                                 |
| Weinmannia gymnicola Sol.                 | .. | Towai, tawhero                                | .. | .. | ..                                          | ..                     | "                 | ..            | Dimorphic tree or shrub, with coriaceous, ternate, entire, or pinnate leaves.                 |
| ROSACEÆ.                                         |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Rubus australis Forst.                    | .. | Tataramoa                                     | .. | .. | Bush-lawyer                                 | ..                     | N. C. S.          | ..            | Scrambling liane, with curved prickles and finally stout cable-like stem.                     |
| — schmidtioides A. Cunn.                  | .. | ..                                            | .. | .. | Rose-leaved lawyer?                         | ..                     | "                 | ..            | Dimorphic scrambling liane, with rose-like coriaceous adult leaves.                           |
| Acena Sanguisorbæ Vahl.                   | .. | Piriwhetau (pirikahu = the flower), piri-piri | .. | .. | Biddybiddy (a corruption of the Maori name) | Aus., Tristan da Cunha | N. C. S. Ch. Sub. | Forest, heath | Creeping herb, with thin pinnate leaves and barbed fruits.                                    |
| Carmichaelia australis                    | .. | Makaka                                        | .. | .. | Tall native broom..                         | End.                   | N. C.             | Forest        | Almost leafless shrub, with flattened assimilating stems.                                     |
| Sophora tetraloplia J. Mill.              | .. | Kowhai                                        | .. | .. | New Zealand laburnum, yellow kowhai         | S. A.                  | N. C. Chat.       | "             | Small tree, with semi-deciduous pinnate leaves and showy yellow flowers.                      |
| Geranium microphyllum Hook. f.            | .. | ..                                            | .. | .. | Slender geranium ..                         | End.                   | N. C. S. Sub.     | Heath         | Small herb, with prostrate stems and small leaves.                                            |
| Pelargonium australe Jacq.                | .. | Kopata                                        | .. | .. | ..                                          | Aus., Tristan da Cunha | N. C. S. Ch.      | "             | Small herb, with ovate-cordate leaves.                                                        |
| OXALIDACEÆ.                                      |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Oxalis corniculata L.                     | .. | ..                                            | .. | .. | Yellow oxalis                               | Temp. and Trop. Cos.   | N. C. S. Ker.     | "             | Small prostrate herb, with matted stems and 3-foliate leaves.                                 |
| RUTACEÆ.                                         |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Phebalium nudum Hook.                     | .. | Maireire                                      | .. | .. | ..                                          | End.                   | N.                | Forest        | Closely branched slender shrub, with small aromatic reddish leaves.                           |
| Melicope ternata Fors.                    | .. | Wharangi                                      | .. | .. | ..                                          | "                      | N. C. Ker.        | "             | Tall shrub, with glossy ternate leaves                                                        |
| — simplex A. Cunn.                        | .. | ..                                            | .. | .. | ..                                          | "                      | N. C. S.          | "             | Moderately tall shrub with dimorphic foliage and small simple adult leaves.                   |
| MELIACEÆ.                                        |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Dysoxylum spectabile (Forst. f.) Hook. f. | .. | Kohekohe                                      | .. | .. | Cedar                                       | "                      | N. C.             | "             | Medium-sized tree, with large, glossy, pinnate leaves and inflorescence given off from trunk. |
| CORIARIACEÆ.                                     |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Coriaria ruscifolia L.                    | .. | Tupakihi (tatu = the fruit)                   | .. | .. | ..                                          | S. A.                  | N. C. S. Ch.      | Bank of creek | Dimorphic shrub, with coriaceous, glossy-green, entire leaves.                                |
| Corynocarpus levigata Forst.              | .. | Karaka                                        | .. | .. | New Zealand laurel                          | End.                   | N. C. Ch.         | Forest        | Laurel-like, round-headed, small tree.                                                        |
| SAPINDACEÆ.                                      |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Dodonaea viscosa Jacq.                    | .. | Akeake                                        | .. | .. | ..                                          | Trop. Cos.             | N. C. S. Ch.      | "             | Small tree, with parchment-like entire narrow leaves.                                         |
| Alectryon excelsum Gaertn.                | .. | Titoki                                        | .. | .. | New Zealand ash                             | End.                   | N. C. S.          | "             | Moderate-sized tree, with rather thin pinnate leaves and showy scarlet fruit.                 |
| RHAMNACEÆ.                                       |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Pomaderris phyticeifolia Lodd.            | .. | Tanhinu                                       | .. | .. | ..                                          | Aus. ..                | N. C.             | Heath         | Small heath-like shrub, with small revolute leaves.                                           |
| ELÆOCARPACEÆ.                                    |    |                                               |    |    |                                             |                        |                   |               |                                                                                               |
| Aristotelia racemosa (A. Cunn.) Hook. f.  | .. | Makomako                                      | .. | .. | Wineberry                                   | End.                   | N. C. S.          | Forest        | Small tree or shrub, with moderate-sized, thin, ovate, toothed leaves.                        |