A septic tank and conveniences have been erected at the baths. Scrub and wire fencing and planting grass have also been done. A new track, about 30 chains in length, has been cut, and a pathway made through the lupins on the old lagoon-site, the formation being of sand, covered with rotten rock. To the right and left of this path are hollows and dunes. The latter will in due course be levelled, and will form part of the Marine Park, which will be sheltered in all weathers. The Board has made inquiries regarding hot salt-water baths, and will proceed with the erection of two forthwith, increasing the number later on if found to work satisfactorily and the public requires them.
