The Department took 536 cases before the Magistrate's Court for breaches of awards, against 552 last year. Of the cases taken this year, 456 were given in the Department's favour, 75 were dismissed, and 5 withdrawn. Twenty-five cases were conducted by union officials, 18 convictions were obtained, and 7 cases dismissed. In the departmental cases, £698 10s. 6d. penalties were imposed, and in cases conducted by unions £41 12s. as penalties. Of the 35 cases taken to the Arbitration Court by the Department, 21 were won and 14 dismissed. The fines inflicted amounted to £27. The unions prosecuted in 7 cases, there being 6 convictions and 1 dismissal. The fines amounted to £5 10s.

Moneys recovered for Workers.

Inspectors of the Department have recovered the total sum of £1,375 9s. 5d. on behalf of workers, as detailed by the table given hereunder. The amounts consisted mainly of money due for back wages, payment for holidays, overtime, &c. The cases were not considered serious enough for prosecution, as the lapses were found to be committed through inadvertence.
