No deduction is made from the above leave unless the total intermittent leave during the previous twelve months has exceeded five days, and absence from illness or accident has exceeded one week.

In cases of illness or other pressing necessity the Minister may grant to any officer such extended leave, not exceeding twelve months, and on such terms as he thinks fit.

The Governor may, on the recommendation of the Minister, grant to any officer in the Department of at least ten years' continuous service twelve months' leave of absence, and to any officer of lesser period of service any time not exceeding six months' leave of absence, on half-salary. During such period of absence no officer shall be entitled to receive any annual increment.

Less any time off sick.

Subject to the production of medical certificate, any officer is entitled to full pay when absent from duty owing to illness for any period up to four weeks. No further payment can be made without the authority of the Minister.

No member who is absent on extended sick-leave is considered eligible for promotion during the period of such absence. In the event of members being off sick for periods totalling over two months in any one year, their scale increases are withheld for a corresponding period of time.
