

the case of letters of request emanating from foreign Governments, I have to suggest that it will be desirable that any letters of request which it is desired should be executed abroad should be accompanied by interrogatories and translations of them into the language of the country in which the examination is to take place. Otherwise it is possible that foreign countries may decline to execute such letters of request until interrogatories and translations have been provided, a course which would involve serious loss of time.

Dominions—Circular.

MY LORD,—

Downing Street, 21st September, 1910.

A.—1, 1911,
No. 70.

With reference to my circular despatch of the 27th of May last, I have the honour to state, for the information of your Government, that His Majesty's Engraver of Seals now proposes to proceed with the preparation of the new public seals rendered necessary by the demise of the Crown.

2. Before the work of engraving the new public seal for New Zealand is begun, I should be glad to be informed at your early convenience whether it is desired that any change should be made in the design beyond that rendered necessary by the accession of His Majesty.

I have, &c.,

CREWE.

The Officer administering the Government of New Zealand.
