EXTRACT FROM THE THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION.

The contributors to the fund consist of—

- (1.) Those who joined under the original Act of 1905 and elected to remain thereunder; the retiring-allowance being one-sixtieth of the total salary received by the contributor during the period of contributing to the fund (or, in other words, one-sixtieth of his average salary for each year of service during the whole period of contribution), together with one one-hundred-and-twentieth of the salary during the years of service between the 1st January, 1878, and the 1st January, 1906; the retiring-allowance to "original" contributors being in no case less than £52.
- (2.) Those who joined subsequently to the passing of the amending Act in 1908, together with such of the members as did not exercise the option of remaining under the original Act; the retiring-allowance being for each year of service one-sixtieth of the average rate of salary received during the three years next preceding retirement, with a limitation of the total allowance to two-thirds of the average salary; and for those who joined after the 24th December, 1909, a further limitation to £300 per annum.

Under the provisions of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1912, those persons who were in the Education service on the 1st January, 1906, and who were still in the service, could elect, on or before the 30th June, 1913, to become contributors to the fund, contributions being payable as from the 1st January, 1906. Provision was also made whereby those persons employed in the University colleges at the date of the coming into operation of the Act (7th November, 1912) could elect, on or before the 30th June, 1913, to become contributors to the fund, and in these cases such contributors would be entitled to count back service. The allowance for back service will be one one-hundred-and-twentieth part of the mean of the last three years' salary for each year of service. All persons first permanently employed under the University of New Zealand and the University colleges after the date of the passing of the Amendment Act must become contributors to the fund.

It is also provided that the Government contribution to the fund as from the 1st January, 1913, shall be increased from £7,000 to £17,000 per annum.

At the end of 1912,

The number of contributors was	3,641
Of whom members under Part IX of Education Act, 1908, numbered	105
The annual rate of contribution paid as at the end of the year was over..	£40,000

The balance at the credit of the fund and invested by the Public Trustee at the end of the year was £212,174

The fund receives $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. interest on daily balances in the hands of the Public Trustee, and no charge is made for investment.

No. 2.

SEVENTH REPORT OF THE BOARD CONSTITUTED BY THE PUBLIC SERVICE CLASSIFICATION AND SUPERANNUATION AMENDMENT ACT (PART I), 1908.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 1912.

The Honourable the Minister of Education.

Sir,—

Wellington, 24th June, 1913.

The Board has to submit the following report for the year ending 31st December, 1912.

Meetings.—At the quarterly meeting held in January it was resolved that in future the quarterly meetings would be held in February, May, August, and November.

Election.—The triennial election of the elective members of the Board was held in March, and resulted in the election of Messrs. W. T. Grundy and H. G. Cousins representing the North Island contributors, and Messrs. W. Davidson and J. A. Valentine representing the South Island contributors.

Amendment Act, 1912 (new admissions).—The Amendment Act of 1912, providing that those persons who were in the Education service on the 1st January, 1906, and who were still in the service could elect, on or before the 30th June, 1913, to become contributors to the fund has been taken advantage of by over one hundred teachers and other persons. The conditions of membership which the Board determined were that contributions must be paid as from the 1st January, 1906, the arrears being subject to interest at the rate of 5 per cent.

The provision which was also made in the Amendment Act to include persons employed in the University colleges as members of the Fund was availed of by about forty professors and others who were in the Education service at the date of coming into operation of the Act (7th November, 1912). These contributors will on retirement be entitled to benefits on account of their previous service. Persons first permanently employed under the University of New Zealand and the University colleges after the passing of the Act are bound to become contributors.

Increased amount contribution by Government.—The Government contribution to the Fund of £17,000 was received at the beginning of 1913.

The number of contributors increased from 3,387 at the end of 1911 to 3,641 at the end of 1912, and the number of persons in receipt of benefits increased during the year from 324 to 376.

Details of the members of the fund on 31st December, 1912, grouped according to their status, are given in the following tables:—
