

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSION	Page
1
EXTENSIONS OF COMMISSION	2, 3, 4
REPORT :—
The Kauri-gum Lands of New Zealand	5
Short Description of Gumfields	7
Origin of the Kauri-gum Reserves	8
Classification of Reserves	9
Neglect of Crown Gum Lands in past Years	9
Some Contrasts in Management	10
Suggestions for the Future	11
A Practical Solution of the “ Unemployed ” Difficulty	12
The Settlement of Gum Lands	12
Sand-drift on the Peninsula North of Ahipara	15
Afforestation	17
Suitability of Gum Lands for Fruitgrowing	17
The Population of the Gumfields—The Digger and his Working Outfit	18
The Importance and Value of the Kauri-gum Industry	19
Return of Kauri-gum exported for Years 1891 to 1913	19
The Wine-shops on the Kauri-gum Reserves	20
Summary	20
Schedule of Reserves	21
MAPS	Following page 24
MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS	25
MINUTES OF EVIDENCE	34
PHOTOGRAPHS :—
The Majestic Kauri : Fons laboris et origo	Frontispiece
Sand-drift West of Waipapakauri	Facing 14
A Gum-store at Sweetwater, near Waipapakauri	14
The Big Flat, Opoe Reserve, West of Waiharera	15
Kauri-gum on the Way to Awanui	15
Houhora Gumfields, looking Southward from Ngataki Pa	38
Mr. Gleeson's Home, Rotoroa Reserve, Waipapakauri	38
Digging “ On a Face,” near Waipapakauri	39
Digging “ On a Face,” the Washing Plant	39
The Waiharera Flat	68
Waipapakauri, a Centre of the Kauri-gum Industry	68
Northern Portion of Awanui Flat, Waipapakauri	69
Motutangi Flat, near Waiharera. Mount Camel in Background	69
The Awanui Flat from Waipapakauri. Kaitaia in Background	98