

STANDARD OF REVENUE

1. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

2. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

3. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

4. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

5. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

6. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

7. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

8. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

9. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

10. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

11. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

12. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

13. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

14. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

15. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

16. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

17. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

18. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

19. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.

20. The standard of revenue is the amount of revenue which is expected to be received from the sale of the property.