* This award appears to have now lapsed. Clause 14 states that it "shall continue in force until any change is made by legislation in any of the conditions fixed by the award: that on any such change being made all the provisions of the award shall cease to operate, and that thereafter the conditions of employment shall be fixed by agreement between each employer and the individual workers employed by him." The effect of the Shops and Offices Amendment Act, 1910, was to reduce the hours of work of hotel-assistants, but section 11, however, suspended its operation in regard to awards then in force. The period for which this award was made has now expired, so that the alteration has taken effect, and therefore the provisions of clause 14 of the award would appear to have come into operation, and the other provisions ceased to operate. The awards, other than Wellington City, have come into operation since the passing of the Shops and Offices Amendment Act, 1910, and therefore are not affected in the same way.
