

|      | 23 | Wimmers, s.s.,9 years            | Schooner  | 1,872 | 79 | 129         | General | Broken pump-shaft; triflingdamage      |    | Lat. 34° 9' S., Long.116° 14' E. | ..     | ..              | Driving-shaft of centrifugal pump brokeinside pump-casing                                                                                                           | G. F. Entwistle. |
|------|----|--------------------------------------|-----------|-------|----|-------------|---------|------------------------------------------------|----|--------------------------------------|--------|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| "    | 23 | Wairoa, s.s., 30years            | Cutter .. | 48    | 7  | About20 | General | Collision withwharf; slightdamage      | .. | Nelson ..                            | ..     | Calm ..         | When berthing the engines were put aheadinstead of astern, and vessel ran underwharf and damaged top gear                                                       | F. P. Ricketts.  |
| "    | 24 | Pitoitoi, s.s., 9years           | Cutter .. | 19    | 5  | ..          | General | Struck snag;£50 damage                     | .. | Mokau River ..                       | ..     | Calm ..         | Struck submerged snag, and stove in twoplanks                                                                                                                       | W. Robertson.    |
| "    | 29 | Inga, s.s., 9 years                  | Schooner  | 570   | 19 | ..          | Timber  | Stranded;£1,000 dam-ages               | .. | Kaipara Harbour ..                   | N.E.   | Light ..        | Proceeding down Kaipara Harbour the vesselstruck Toka Toka rocks, in the early morn-ing, the buoy not being visible in mist anddarkness                     | J. H. Bull.      |
| June | 2  | Gael, s.s., 9 years                  | Schooner  | 55    | 9  | 8           | General | Broken piston-rod; £15damage           | .. | Off Takapu Point,Auckland        | N.W.   | Light ..        | The piston-rod of the low-pressure cylinderbroke and struck the cylinder top, whichwas also broken                                                              | A. McKenzie.     |
| "    | 2  | Kittawa, s.s.,15 years           | Schooner  | 708   | 23 | ..          | General | Rivet workedout                            | .. | Off Westport ..                      | N.W.   | Gale ..         | Rivet worked out, and 4 ft. of water found inhold                                                                                                                   | J. Pennington.   |
| "    | 10 | Maroro, 11 years                     | Schooner  | 200   | 10 | ..          | Nil ..  | Stranded; slightdamage                     | .. | Pelorus Sound ..                     | S.S.W. | Light ..        | Vessel missed stays and went on the rocks ..                                                                                                                            | R. Owens.        |
| "    | 19 | Kairaki, s.s., 4years            | Schooner  | 181   | 16 | ..          | Timber  | Stranded; £700damage                       | .. | South Spit, KarameaBar           | S.E.   | Light ..        | Vessel struck sandspit when crossing bar, loststeerage way and drifted ashore. Afterjettisoning cargo she floated off                                           | W. G. Scott.     |
| "    | 21 | Hawera, s.s., 1½years            | Schooner  | 92    | 10 | 1           | General | Stranded; slightdamage                     | .. | 4 miles south of Wa-nganui Heads | N.     | Light ..        | Stranding would probably have been avoidedhad mate taken soundings                                                                                                  | T. M. Jackson.   |
| "    | 28 | Petone, s.s., 13years            | Schooner  | 388   | 16 | ..          | Produce | Broken shaft;£300 damage                   | .. | Entrance, Timaru Har-bour        | ..     | Calm ..         | Tail-shaft broke, no reason apparent                                                                                                                                    | W. S. Gordon.    |
| July | 11 | Aorere, s.s., 27years            | Ketch ..  | 49    | 9  | ..          | General | Broken shaft;£120 damage                   | .. | 26 miles from Patea ..               | S.     | Freshbreeze | Tail end of shaft carried away in heavy sea ..                                                                                                                          | A. H. Fisk.      |
| "    | 12 | Otaki, s.s., 5years              | Schooner  | 4,611 | 68 | ..          | General | Fire; £90damage                            | .. | Wellington Harbour                   | ..     | Calm ..         | Fire occurred in the after coal-bunker, thecase enclosing the electric wires beingburnt. Caused by coal-trimmers leavingcandles to burn out on the woodwork | L. G. Silba.     |
| "    | 13 | Waitomo, s.s., 2years            | Schooner  | 2,719 | 36 | ..          | Coal .. | Stranded; nodamage                         | .. | Otago Harbour ..                     | ..     | Calm ..         | The vessel was heavily laden, and took theground in the channel near QuarantineIsland, but floated off on being lightened of300 tons of cargo               | E. Harris.       |
| "    | 27 | Napier, s.s., 43years            | Schooner  | 28    | 6  | ..          | ..      | Broken gauge-glass; triflingaccident   | .. | Off Tataroa Heads ..                 | S.W.   | Gale ..         | Vessel shipped a heavy sea which got into theengine-room and caused the gauge-glass tobreak                                                                     | W. Anderson.     |
| "    | 29 | Aupouri, s.s., 8years            | Schooner  | 220   | 22 | 23          | General | Lost propeller;£45 damage                  | .. | Near Thames Wharf                    | ..     | Calm ..         | The vessel was going astern when the tail-shaft broke and the propeller was lost                                                                                    | E. H. S. Goertz. |
| Aug. | 3  | Star of Australia,s.s., 14 years | Schooner  | 3,985 | 56 | ..          | General | Stranded; nodamage                         | .. | Otago Harbour ..                     | S.W.   | Light ..        | Failing to answer her helm quickly she raninto a mudbank, but floated off on rise oftide                                                                        | F. W. Ulyatt.    |
| "    | 6  | Lily, 38 years                       | Ketch ..  | 13    | 3  | ..          | ..      | Stranded; nodamage                         | .. | Akaroa Harbour ..                    | S.     | Strong..        | When entering the harbour in thick foggyweather vessel ran on a reef off Green Pointbut got off with trifling damage                                            | G. Cross.        |
| "    | 19 | Maitai, s.s., 21years            | Schooner  | 1,888 | .. | ..          | ..      | Accident to ma-chinery; triflingdamage | .. | Wellington Harbour                   | ..     | ..              | A steam-pipe leading to deck machinery burst                                                                                                                            | A. Carson.       |