Post and Telegraph Department.

The above table does not include officers of the Administrative Division, Inspectors of Schools (40, salaries £20,581), or Native-school teachers (256, salaries £34,875).

Note.—The staff of the whole Service shows an increase of 797. Of these, 354 were temporary officers made permanent and formerly paid out of other votes than salaries; 499 were on the 31st March absent with the Expeditionary Forces, the balance of assistance necessary being provided by appointments of cadets, &c., included in the total staff of 11,508 shown as employed on the 31st March, 1915. There was thus an increase in the working-staff of three officers as compared with the 31st March of the previous year, as shown below—
