

SPECIAL REPORTS.

1. SOME PRINCIPLES OF MUSEUM ADMINISTRATION AFFECTING THE FUTURE DEVELOPMENT OF THE DOMINION MUSEUM. By J. Allan Thomson, Director :—

	Page
I. Need of a Definite Plan	9
II. Functions of a Museum—
Special Functions of the Dominion Museum	10
Responsibilities of the Dominion Museum for Research Work	10
Museum Extension Work.. .. .	11
III. The Threefold Division of Museum Collections	11
IV. The Acquisition of Specimens	12
V. Scope of the Dominion Museum Collections	13
New Zealand History	13
Ethnology and Ethnography	13
Zoology	14
Representative Systematic Collection	14
Comparative Research Collection	14
Special Synoptic Collections	15
Botany	15
Geology	15
Representative Stratigraphical Collection of Fossils	15
Reference Collection of Minerals	15
Special Exhibits of Minerals	16
Reference Collection of Rocks	16
Technology	16
Fine Art	16
Dominion Scientific, Art, and Historical Library	16
VI. Museum Staff	17
General Considerations	17
Honorary Curators	17
Museum Guides	17
Proportions of Staff and Expenditure	18
VII. Museum Control	18
VIII. Conclusion	18

2. COLLECTIONS AVAILABLE FOR THE DOMINION ART GALLERY. By J. McDonald, Art Assistant :—

The Monrad Collection	19
The Chevalier Collection	20
The Dominion Museum Collection	20
The New Zealand Academy of Fine Arts Collection	20
The National Collection	20
Sculpture	20
Some Considerations for Future Guidance	21

3. THE EXISTING STATE OF THE TUATARA (SPHENODON PUNCTATUS GRAY), WITH SOME NOTES ON ITS HABITS. By J. Allan Thomson, Director, Dominion Museum :—

Introduction	22
Numbers, Increase or Decrease, and Enemies	22
Colour and Markings	25
Size	25
Lairs	25
Eggs and Development	25
Nocturnal Habits	26
Partial Hibernation	26
Immobility in Captivity	26
General	26