way for the city's needed eastern outlet. Temporary accommodation has to be provided for the classes in separate buildings, the scheme for 1918 involving great expense and inconvenience. The Council will do its utmost to overcome the grave difficulties of the crisis, but it remains with the Government to take action at the earliest possible date to remove the reproach of shockingly unworthy accommodation that rests upon the higher education in New Zealand's I have, &c.,

The Hon. the Minister of Education, Wellington.

School of Mines .- Report of the Director (S. E. Lamb, B.Sc. Lond., A.R.C.Sc. Lond., A.M.I.M.E.).

. The war continues to influence adversely the number of students attending the school, the figures for the last three years being 52, 50, and 39 respectively. Of the 39 students in attendance this year, 22 had matriculated and 12 were studying for the associateship course in

During the year one student passed the examinations controlled by the Institution of Civil Engineers (London), and is now a qualified engineer; whilst another student passed the preliminary examination of the same institution. A third student passed the examinations of the New Zealand Government for licensed surveyor.
