GENERAL REMARKS.

On the 1st August, 1918, a new district with headquarters at Palmerston North was formed from contiguous portions of the Wanganui, Wellington, and Napier Districts. By the promotion of the Sub-Inspector already stationed at Palmerston North to the rank of Inspector the change was effected, and has given considerable relief to the districts mentioned, which were too large for satisfactory administrative purposes. The establishment of other new districts, which you approved of at the same time, has been retarded owing to the difficulty of sparing men from general duty for the office staffs. The remaining districts will, however, be established as early as possible. This further subdivision of the Dominion into smaller districts will have an immense effect upon the
