PRAYING that the allegations made that Sims, Cooper, and Co. (Limited) have been or are now associated with the American meat trust should be investigated by a Committee of the House.

I am directed to report that in the opinion of the Committee Dr. Reakes in his evidence before the Meat-export Trade Committee acted in good faith and in the public interest; and, further, the Committee had no evidence to connect Messrs. Sims, Cooper, and Co. (Limited) with the American meat trust, but, on the contrary, the evidence adduced showed that the company is in no way connected with the trust. This view is borne out by the finding of the Meat-export Trade Committee in 1917.
