(b.) FURNITURE.—Loans not exceeding £75 (free of interest) may be made for the purchase of household furniture, and in such cases applicants are required to produce the vendor's price-list of the articles required. These loans are granted only to married men (or men with dependants requiring a loan) who are in employment, or who are established in business, or are subsidized

* It will be noticed that 417 farmers have been assisted. The applications were outside the scope of the Lands Department, and in such cases the Repatriation Department considers applications for assistance up to £300 for the purchase of stock, &c.
