MY LORD,—

Downing Street, 8th May, 1919.

At the desire of Her Majesty the Queen, I have the honour to transmit to Your Excellency, to be laid before your Ministers, a medal struck at the time of the Investiture of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales at Carnarvon. The medal was designed by Sir W. Goscombe, R.A.

A.-1, 1919,
No. 18.

The Queen thinks that some representative institution in New Zealand would be glad to possess this medal, which commemorates an event of so much interest in the life of His Royal Highness, and it will give great pleasure to Her Majesty to present it to such institution as your Ministers may think most suitable.

I have, &c.,

MILNER.

Governor-General His Excellency the Right Hon. the Earl of Liverpool,
P.C., G.C.M.G., G.B.E., M.V.O., &c.

New Zealand, Dominions No. 365.

MY LORD,—

Downing Street, 10th May, 1919.

With reference to my predecessor's telegram of the 13th August, 1918, I have the honour to request Your Excellency to inform your Ministers that His Majesty's Government have now decided to allow changes of names of merchant ships.

A.-1, 1919,
No. 16.

2. The conditions on which the change of a ship's name may be authorized have been amended to provide that the name proposed must not already be the name of a registered British ship, or a name which has been on the register at any time within the last twelve months, or so similar to any such name as to be calculated to deceive. A name which is already the name of another ship or has been on the register during the last twelve months may, however, be allowed (a) if the vessel is used solely as a pleasure yacht, (b) if the vessel is intended to replace another of the same name, and belonging to the same owner, whose register has been closed or whose name has been changed, or (c) in the case of vessels plying only within a harbour and known by numbers, if the number
