

CONTENTS—continued.

	PAGE		PAGE
Inter-Island Submarine Telephone-cable ..	27	Automatic Telephone Exchanges ..	34
Cross-section of Cook Strait Telephone-cable (Shore End)	28	Air-conditioning Plants for Automatic Exchanges	36
Wireless-equipment Extension, &c. ..	28	Interphone Installations	36
Wireless Installations on Ships ..	29	Automatic Private Branch Exchanges ..	36
Reception of Signals from British High-power Station at Rugby	29	Information Bureaux	38
Imperial Wireless Services	29	Public Call Offices (Coin-in-slot) ..	38
Listening Service	30	Laboratory	38
Aurora Australis	30
Wireless Communication with Antarctica ..	30
Elimination of Interference to "Listeners-in"	30
Wireless at Exhibition	30
Private Radio-stations and Radio-dealers' Licenses	30
Mount Etako Plantation	30
Wireless Traffic	30
Radio Broadcasting	30
Telephone-exchange Service	31
Extension of Telephone-exchange System ..	31
Telephone Statistics	32
Graph showing the Telephone-exchange Wire in Underground and Aerial Cables, and Open Aerial Wire, respectively, each Year since 1920	34

(Interleaved is a plan of the Tuatapere new post-office building; also illustrations of the new post-office buildings at Eastbourne, Tuatapere, and Paeroa; sections of the departmental Court at the Dunedin Exhibition; a section of the switching-apparatus at the Central Telephone Exchange, Wellington; and the laying of the Cook Strait telephone-cable; together with graphs indicating departmental revenue and expenditure.)

APPENDIX.

Designation of Offices changed ..	39
Cable Business	39
Radio-telegrams	39

(For Index to Tables see page iii, and for Detailed Index see pages iv, v, and vi.)