

TABLE M 2.—AVERAGE SALARIES (INCLUSIVE OF ALL ALLOWANCES EXCEPT HOUSE ALLOWANCE OR VALUE OF RESIDENCE) OF FULL-TIME TEACHERS IN JUNIOR HIGH AND POST-PRIMARY SCHOOLS AND OF MANUAL INSTRUCTORS AS AT 1ST DECEMBER.

|                                                 | 1928.        |    |        |    |                |               |     |        |     |                | 1931.        |     |        |     |                |             |     |        |     |                |
|-------------------------------------------------|--------------|----|--------|----|----------------|---------------|-----|--------|-----|----------------|--------------|-----|--------|-----|----------------|-------------|-----|--------|-----|----------------|
|                                                 | Principals.* |    |        |    |                | All Teachers. |     |        |     |                | Principals.* |     |        |     |                | Assistants. |     |        |     |                |
|                                                 | Men.         |    | Women. |    | BothSexes. | Men.          |     | Women. |     | BothSexes. | Men.         |     | Women. |     | BothSexes. | Men.        |     | Women. |     | BothSexes. |
|                                                 | £            | £  | £      | £  |                | £             | £   | £      | £   |                | £            | £   | £      | £   |                | £           | £   | £      | £   |                |
| Junior high schools and departments†            | ..           | .. | ..     | .. | 329            | ..            | ..  | ..     | ..  | ..             | ..           | ..  | ..     | ..  | ..             | 340         | 258 | ..     | ..  | ..             |
| Secondary departments of district high schools† | ..           | .. | ..     | .. | 314            | ..            | ..  | ..     | ..  | ..             | ..           | ..  | ..     | ..  | ..             | 317         | 269 | ..     | ..  | ..             |
| Secondary schools                               | ..           | .. | ..     | .. | 344            | 418           | 366 | 363    | 672 | 621            | ..           | 524 | 495    | 569 | 327            | 375         | 268 | 280    | 346 | 346            |
| Combined schools                                | ..           | .. | ..     | .. | ..             | ..            | ..  | ..     | 642 | 569            | ..           | ..  | ..     | 325 | 384            | 254         | 276 | 345    | 345 | 345            |
| Technical high and day schools                  | ..           | .. | ..     | .. | 345            | 427           | 365 | 261    | 611 | 611            | ..           | ..  | ..     | 320 | 372            | 237         | 237 | 237    | 336 | 336            |

* In addition, married Principals for whom a residence was not provided received house allowance—in 1928 of £60 per annum, in 1931 of £54 per annum.
† With the exception of two separate junior high schools under the Auckland Education Board, all the above are under the control of the Principal of a secondary school or the headmaster of a primary school. Hence the salaries given are confined to those of assistants.

MANUAL INSTRUCTORS.—AVERAGE RATE OF SALARY OF MANUAL INSTRUCTORS AS ON 1ST DECEMBER.

|               | 1928. |    | 1931. |     |
|---------------|-------|----|-------|-----|
|               | £     | £  | £     | £   |
| Men           | ..    | .. | 360   | 327 |
| Women         | ..    | .. | 224   | 209 |
| Men and women | ..    | .. | 302   | 277 |