

The upward trend of the heights and weights of our school-children is shown in the accompanying graphs comparing the results of the three New Zealand investigations:—

