* There were 479 positions for probationary assistants in the year 1936, but only twenty-one ex-Training College students were available to serve in that capacity. The remaining positions were filled by the appointment of substituted assistants and relieving teachers.

† This grade of salary is paid to infant-mistresses in schools of Grade IIIC.

‡ This grade of salary is paid to certain infant-mistresses in mixed schools of Grades VB, VC, and VIA, and to certain second female assistants in mixed schools of Grade VII.

§ Certain teachers in normal schools and special classes.

N.B.—In addition to the grade salary shown in the table the regulations provide for the payment of additional amounts by way of grading increment, married allowance, house allowance, normal school allowance, and an allowance to head teachers of District High Schools.
