

LIST OF PHOTOGRAPHS.

|                                                                                                                    | PAGE |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Map of North Island Schemes and Farms .. .. .                                                                      | 76   |
| Map of South Island Schemes and Farms .. .. .                                                                      | 76   |
| Ahuwhenua Trophy Competition (Horohoro : Waikaukau Scheme)—                                                        |      |
| A View of the Farm adjudicated First in the Ahuwhenua Trophy Competition, 1939 (J. Edwards)                        | 81   |
| The Cow-shed of the Winning Farm .. .. .                                                                           | 81   |
| The Governor-General presenting the Trophy .. .. .                                                                 | 82   |
| The Turnip Crop on the Winning Farm .. .. .                                                                        | 82   |
| Concrete-post Manufacturing—                                                                                       |      |
| King-country Schemes : Concrete Posts made by Maori Workers .. .. .                                                | 90   |
| Ruatoki Scheme : Concrete Fencing-posts and Water-troughs being seasoned .. .. .                                   | 90   |
| Heretaunga Scheme : Thrashing Rye-grass .. .. .                                                                    | 88   |
| Hoia Station—                                                                                                      |      |
| A General View .. .. .                                                                                             | 89   |
| Choice Land looking towards the Homestead .. .. .                                                                  | 89   |
| Hokianga Scheme—                                                                                                   |      |
| Showing Good-quality Native Land .. .. .                                                                           | 77   |
| A Settler's Property in Rena Valley .. .. .                                                                        | 77   |
| A Settler harrowing .. .. .                                                                                        | 77   |
| A Well-kept Settler's Dwelling .. .. .                                                                             | 78   |
| An Old-age Pensioner's Cottage built by Native Labour .. .. .                                                      | 78   |
| Housing Operations—                                                                                                |      |
| Maori Carpenters at Work on a Cottage .. .. .                                                                      | 79   |
| A Group of Houses erected near Paeroa .. .. .                                                                      | 79   |
| Manunui Scheme—                                                                                                    |      |
| Typical Country being developed.. .. .                                                                             | 86   |
| Twenty Tons of Grass-seed being mixed for Autumn Sowing, 1939 .. .. .                                              | 87   |
| Morikau Station : Showing the Buildings and Home Paddocks .. .. .                                                  | 86   |
| Oaonui Scheme : Showing Undeveloped and Developed Land .. .. .                                                     | 86   |
| Ruatoki Scheme—                                                                                                    |      |
| A Calf-feed Pen on a Settler's Farm .. .. .                                                                        | 80   |
| A Haymaking Scene .. .. .                                                                                          | 82   |
| Reureu Scheme : Showing the New and the Former Dwelling of a Settler .. .. .                                       | 87   |
| Southland Scheme—                                                                                                  |      |
| Typical Country being developed.. .. .                                                                             | 88   |
| The Land ploughed and sown in Swedes, after Stumping .. .. .                                                       | 88   |
| Tabeke Scheme : The New Wool-shed and Dip .. .. .                                                                  | 80   |
| Tauranga-Taupo Scheme : Tractors at Work on Foot-hills .. .. .                                                     | 80   |
| Tawanui Station : Showing the " Control " and " Cobalt " Ewes employed in a Cobalt Top-dressing Experiment .. .. . | 89   |
| Waiapu-Matakaoa Scheme—                                                                                            |      |
| A Settler's Milking-herd .. .. .                                                                                   | 83   |
| A Dairy-farm .. .. .                                                                                               | 83   |
| A New Dwelling erected for a Settler .. .. .                                                                       | 85   |
| Wharekahika Scheme—                                                                                                |      |
| An Old Type of Cow-shed .. .. .                                                                                    | 84   |
| A New Cow-shed built for a Settler .. .. .                                                                         | 84   |
| The Former Type of Dwelling used by a Settler .. .. .                                                              | 85   |