

REPORT.

THE SELECT COMMITTEE of the House of Representatives, appointed 16th July, 1856, to enquire and report on the most practicable manner of carrying out the resolution of the House as to the next Meeting of the Assembly, have carefully considered the subject referred to it, and have passed the following Resolutions, which embody their opinions thereon:—

1. That the offer of the Superintendent of Wellington to provide the necessary buildings for the accommodation of the Assembly, and the necessary official accommodation, renders further consideration on that point unnecessary.

2. That the cost of the passage of His Excellency the Governor and suite from and to Auckland ought to be defrayed.

3. That as, according to the 44th clause of the Constitution Act, the Governor is empowered to summon the General Assembly to meet at any place within New Zealand, and as it will be necessary in the event of such meeting being held at any other place than at the Seat of Government, that the Executive Officers should, as well as his Excellency, be absent from such Seat of Government at that time, it is expedient that an Act should be passed to empower his Excellency to appoint a Lieutenant-Governor to act during his absence on the occasion.

4. That all papers and documents of the Houses of Assembly, and all official documents which shall have accrued since the existence of Responsible Government in the Colony, or copies thereof, ought to be taken to the place of the meeting of the Assembly.

5. That some (say two) clerks from the Colonial Secretary's Office, and an effective portion of the Department of the Colonial Treasurer, should accompany the Executive Government to the place of session.

6. That the measures which the Government intends to lay before the House should, as far as possible, be printed in the Government Gazette some time before the meeting of the Assembly.

7. That the extra expenses to be incurred in effecting the above arrangements would, in the opinion of your Committee, amount to not less than £2500, including the salary of the Lieutenant-Governor, the passages of his Excellency the Governor and suite, of the Executive officers and clerks, and the passages and allowances of the increased number of members of both Houses, who, under the arrangement, would have to leave their usual places of residence.

E. W. STAFFORD, Chairman

*Committee Room, House of Representatives,
Monday, July 31, 1856.*