THE BATMAN.

Who gets up early in the morn,
Dishevelled hair and locks forlorn,
And wishes he had ne'er been born?—
The Batman.

Who tries to make the buttons shine
Too bright, to go up near the line,
And fit for any broker's sign?—
The Batman.

Who runs for this, and runs for that,
A fussin' round like a barber's cat;
Or, like a terrier chase a rat?—
The Batman.

Who washes clothes as good as new,
And makes a bed or cooks a stew;
In fact there's naught he cannot do?—
The Batman.

And who can do, but aught that's right
From break of day till late at night,
And O.C. wishes out of sight?—
"Me-ex Batman."

But who, when all is said and done
A finished work has lots of fun,
That's if you haven't had your run?—
"Mr Batman."

And who can of great battles "skite"
As Messines Ridge and Vimy Height,
But only does by candle light?—
"Some Batman."

Who very seldom have to fight
Except for meals, their chief delight,
'Tis then they do their bit, too right?—
Most Batmen.

Oh God! If there's another war,
For me who came so far,
Be pleased to grant just one lone star,
—and Batman.
